Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
McLean, Virginia 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

On August 26, 1977 the President directed the Attorney General, through the Task Force on Sex Discrimination, to coordinate a review of all federal laws, regulations, guidelines, programs or policies to identify any that result in unequal treatment based on sex.

To carry out this directive, we are requesting that you supply the Task Force with the name of a contact person who has the knowledge and authority to assist us to identify discrimination in policies and programs administered by your agency. This person should be able to work on the reviewing project and subsequently on the drafting of revisory proposals if necessary. He or she should also be familiar with any activities your agency may have already undertaken in this area, since the Attorney General is charged with coordinating these efforts as well. We would appreciate receiving the name of your designee by September 15, 1977 so that we can carry out the President's intent as soon as possible. If you have any questions please call 739-3908.

Thank you for your cooperation. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Drew S. Days, III
Assistant Attorney General
